

The Utah Taxpayer - April 2022

Two Critical Steps the Utah Legislature Can Take Now To Address Inflation

What can lawmakers and the Governor do to address the issue? By and large, most of the drivers behind the problem are outside of our elected officials' purview. But, is there something they can do? The answer is yes.

Here are the two critical steps they can take immediately.

Big Tax Cuts In Other States Dwarf Utah's Efforts So Far

Arizona, Iowa, Indiana, North Carolina, Louisiana - the list of states that are cutting income tax rates is growing day by day. These states also have one thing in common - their income tax cuts dwarf what Utah has done so far.

See the details on how they are pulling it off

Tips For Fighting Proposed Tax Increases Under Inflation

With cost increases at rates not seen in decades, taxpayers need to be extremely vigilant as government entities begin to form their budgets.

Get up to speed on what taxpayers should be watching

SAVE THE DATE:

May 11, 2022

2022 Taxes Now
Conference and 100th Anniversary Celebration

If you attend only one conference this year, make sure it's this one.

Keynote Lunch Speaker
Announcement Coming Soon!

The event will be held in-person and streamed online. A detailed agenda and RSVP information will be available in the coming weeks.

We will feature highlights from our 100 years advocating for Utah taxpayers. Confirmed speakers so far include Speaker Brad Wilson, Senate President Stuart Adams, Utah State Tax Commission Chair John Valentine, Jared Walczak from the Tax Foundation in Washington DC and many others to come...

REGISTER HERE

Association Accomplishments in March

- Finalized work on tax bills at the 2022 General Session
- Published the 2022 Legislative Scorecard
- Announced winners of the "Friend of the Taxpayer" award for 2022
- Started planning the 2022 Taxes Now Conference and Golf Tournament

In The News

Utah Taxpayers Association praises lawmakers for tax cut, preventing increases

- KSL

Utah Taxpayers Association releases 2022 Legislative Scorecard

- KUER